AGENDA

1. News & information

2. 1997-98

Solicitation of support (attached)

• Action: reconsider 14th annual Faire

- Ticket price increase: different scenarios.
- Seems like interest is waning.
- Lue will chair a national conference in April in Denver, and so not as available to us.
- Too little profit from last year to pay up-front costs of 14th annual faire.
- There are other alternatives: Asian Street Festival (May), Refugee conference (Oct.), Title VII conferences, CAFE, NABE...

This topic keeps coming back (sorry). We're very reluctant to end this event, but continuing it is very problematic.

3. Master calendar of CLAD, BCLAD, SB1969, and language trainings. Please bring info.

Agenda

Thursday, November 13, 1997

9:00 to 11:00

1. Introductions and updates
•CLAD •SB1969 •language classes
2. "No Faire" (read attached):
anyone interested in taking this on?
3. If not, approve use of $3,000 left from last year's Faire to develop website.
4. Decide on future of Refugee Ed Network meetings: topics, etc.
5. Center's closure in May, 1998.
Should we devise procedures for REN members to check out materials if they agree to reshelve upon return? Should we arrange a schedule of loaning the entire collection to REN members for several months? Other ideas?
6. A door opens.
A foundation is looking for successful bilingual or transitional programs to support. We'll tell you more, ask for interest, and sign up those of you who are interested in helping identify likely candidates. This is a very unusual situation, all positive!
